1. Overviews concerning Operating Results and Financial Position

(1) Overview of Operating Results

1) General economic conditions and environment surrounding the Idemitsu Group

During the fiscal year ended March 31, 2017, the Japanese economy continued its mild upward momentum amid the improving consumer spending and employment conditions as well as the upturn in business confidence centered on the manufacturing industry in the context of a steady US economy, the progress of a weakened yen, and the recovery of Chinese economic performance.

As for the domestic demand for petroleum products during fiscal 2016, while demand for gasoline slightly decreased due to the reaction to increased demand in fiscal 2015 caused by favorable summer weather, demand for middle distillate such as kerosene slightly increased thanks to lower temperatures than the previous fiscal year. While the operation of ethylene manufacturing facilities rose due to increased demand for petrochemical raw materials, demand for heavy fuel oil for the power industry decreased caused by the diversification of power sources. As a result, the overall demand for petroleum products remained almost unchanged from the previous fiscal year.

Dubai crude oil prices remained on an upward trend around spring of 2016. However, they dropped as summer approached amid widening recognition of an excess supply. Thereafter, prices turned to an upward trend and exceeded $50/bbl because OPEC agreed to cut its oil production in late September and furthermore, they also agreed with non-OPEC countries to make a concerted effort to cut output in December. Nonetheless, they turned to a downward trend in March on account of the effect of increasing crude oil inventory in the US. Consequently, the average price of Dubai crude oil for fiscal 2016 rose $1.4/bbl from the preceding year to $46.9/bbl.

Demand for petrochemical products during fiscal 2016 increased from the previous fiscal year. Domestic production fared relatively well supported by a decrease in import volume due to the weaker yen. The annual average price of naphtha, a petrochemical raw material, dropped $48/ton from the previous fiscal year to $438/ton.

The exchange rate of the Japanese yen to the US dollar remained at an underlying trend of a strong yen until the middle of the year due to the influence of the Brexiters' victory in the EU exit vote in the UK. Afterwards the trend turned to a weak yen due to the expectation of an economic stimulus package from Donald Trump, the winner of the US presidential election. The average exchange rate for fiscal 2016 increased by ¥11.7/$ from the previous fiscal year to ¥109.4/$.

2) Operating results

Under these circumstances, the Idemitsu Group's net sales for fiscal 2016 were ¥3,190.3 billion, down 10.6% from the previous fiscal year, due mainly to drops in crude oil prices on a yen basis affected by the strong yen.

Operating income was ¥135.2 billion improving by ¥154.9 billion in comparison with the previous fiscal year, affected chiefly by the improved margins of petroleum products, the increased profit in the resources business, and the effect of inventory valuation which turned profitable after a significant loss in the previous fiscal year. Net non-operating income was ¥4.7 billion due mainly to the decreased currency revaluation loss, an increase by ¥7.0 billion from net non-operating loss for the previous fiscal year. Ordinary income improved by ¥161.9 billion from the previous fiscal year to ¥140.0 billion.

Net extraordinary loss was ¥17.0 billion, representing a year-on-year reduction of ¥16.1 billion, helped chiefly by decreased impairment loss in the resources business.

In addition, the Company recorded income taxes of ¥32.5 billion and net income attributable to noncontrolling interests of ¥2.4 billion.

As a result, net income attributable to owners of the parent was ¥88.2 billion, an improvement of ¥124.2 billion from the previous fiscal year.

3) Progress and results of business

The progress and results of our business by segment are as follows:

(Unit: ¥Billion)

Segment	Net sales		Operating income (loss)
	FY2016	Year-to-year change (decrease)	FY2016	Year-to-year change (decrease)

Total	3,190.3	(10.6) %	135.2	—
: excluding effect of inventory valuation	—	—	102.1	(0.4) %

[Petroleum products segment]

In the petroleum products segment, the Company set as its basic strategy the reinforcement of the competitiveness of the domestic supply and marketing systems and the expansion of business in overseas markets, and took the following actions:

(Fuel oil business)

In the supply of petroleum products, the Company carried out crude oil processing taking supply-demand and sales conditions into account, and strived to promote reductions in supply costs while still securing a stable supply of products. Pursuant to the Second Announcement of Sophisticated Methods of Energy Supply Structures, the Company cut its crude distillation unit capacity at the Hokkaido Refinery by 10,000 bbl/day, the Chiba Refinery by 10,000 bbl/day, and the Aichi Refinery by 15,000 bbl/day by the end of March 2017, respectively. The Company responded to changes in the balance of domestic supply and demand which was steadily decreasing and decided to integrate the Chiba Refinery and Petrochemical Plant within fiscal 2017, working toward the construction of a more competitive production structure.

In the marketing and sales of petroleum products, the Company continuously reinforced its network of service stations through opening new service stations, and remodeling and revitalizing the existing ones. It also introduced a POS system before its competitors and started to handle the SoftBank Card (prepaid card). In this way, the Company attempted to increase customer convenience by leveraging the strength of its nationwide network.

As for business efforts in overseas markets, the construction of Nghi Son Refinery and Petrochemical Complex in Vietnam has been completed in April 2017, with a view to embarking on commercial production in fiscal 2017. Also, in order to develop the fuel oil wholesale and retail business in Vietnam, the Company established Idemitsu Q8 Petroleum LLC with Kuwait Petroleum International Ltd.

In Qatar, a Middle Eastern country, Laffan Refinery 2 constructed by Laffan Refinery Company Limited 2, in which the Company has invested, was completed and started production. In order to expand the business in growing overseas markets such as the Pacific Rim region and the Middle East, the Company improved the structure of overseas branches centering on IDEMITSU INTERNATIONAL (ASIA) PTE.LTD., a subsidiary in Singapore.

(Lubricants business)

In fiscal 2016, the total amount of lubricants sold in Japan and abroad was close to 1.2 million kiloliters, hitting an all-time high. Moreover, working toward the construction of a strong sales and supply structure as well as the development and expansion of highly functional products for the global market, the Company started operations of a new factory in Thailand and enhanced R&D functions in the US.

Consequently, net sales in the petroleum products segment for fiscal 2016 fell 11.4% year-on-year to ¥2,438.2 billion, owing primarily to decreases in crude oil prices on a yen basis. Operating income was ¥77.0 billion improving by ¥144.4 billion in comparison with the previous fiscal year on account of the improved product margins and the effect of inventory valuation which turned profitable after a significant loss in the previous fiscal year. Profit arising from inventory valuation included in operating income was ¥31.0 billion.

[Petrochemical products segment]

In the petrochemical products segment, the Company set as its basic strategy the reinforcement of the competitiveness of the basic chemicals business through restructuring of the supply system and enhancement of the profitability of the performance materials business, and took the following actions:

(Basic chemicals business)

In the basic chemicals business, working toward enhanced competitiveness through the diversification of raw materials, the Company decided to improve ethylene manufacturing facilities of the Chiba Chemical Manufacturing LLP which was jointly operated with Mitsui Chemicals, Inc. Also, under a favorable market environment, it maintained the stable operation of its major facilities and equipment such as manufacturing facilities for ethylene and aromatic compounds, thereby ensuring a stable supply of olefin and aromatic compounds to petrochemical complexes as well as for manufacture of the Company's derivative products.

(Performance materials business)

In the engineering plastics business, the Company had pressed ahead step by step since 2013 with the consolidation of the production of polycarbonate resin (Product name: TARFLON®) into Formosa Chemicals & Fibre Corporation ("FCFC") of Taiwan to which the Company had granted a license. In fiscal 2016, the Company completed consolidation of the production of special grade polycarbonates into FCFC and started supply for high value-added applications such as chassis for information equipment and optical components for vehicles. In this way, stable supply systems with greater competitive advantages were established. With regard to syndiotactic polystyrene resin (Product name: XAREC®), which has excellent properties such as superior heat resistance, electrical insulation, and chemical resistance, used for electrical components for vehicles and mobile devices, the Company stepped up efforts to find new applications and expanded the annual production capacity of the Chiba Plant from 7,000 tons to 9,000 tons in April 2016.

In the adhesive materials business, the Company began constructing, in cooperation with Formosa Petrochemical Corporation of Taiwan, a new plant to manufacture hydrogenated petroleum resin (Product name: I-MARV®), whose demand has been on the rise as an excellent tackifier for hot-melt adhesives, in order to suit growing customer needs. The Company also strived to expand both domestic and overseas markets for functional soft polypropylene (Product name: L-MODU®), which has a melting point that is significantly lower than that of existing crystalline polypropylene, while conducting research to find product applications other than its traditional use as an adhesive for sanitary items and a modifier for non-woven fabrics.

Consequently, net sales in the petrochemical products segment for fiscal 2016 were ¥461.2 billion, down 11.4% year-on-year, due mainly to drops in naphtha prices. Operating income fell 5.5% year-on-year to ¥40.0 billion because of such factors as the impact of currency exchange owing to the strong yen which surpassed favorable factors including the expanded margins of products like styrene monomer. Profit arising from inventory valuation included in operating income was ¥2.1 billion.

[Resources segment]

In the resources segment, the Company set as its basic policy the continuation of stable production, the appreciation of assets held by the Company through thorough cost reduction and productivity improvement, and reviewing the asset portfolio. Actions taken are as follows:

(Oil exploration and production business)

With regard to exploration activities, the Company discovered accumulations of oil and gas in the Cara structure of the Norwegian North Sea in September 2016. Moreover, the Company conducted studies related to the future development of oil and gas fields which were discovered off the coast of Vietnam in 2014.

In the existing oil fields, the Company carried out operation improvement activities in addition to stable operation and production. Therefore, it produced crude oil and natural gas in an amount of 43 thousand barrels of crude oil-equivalent per day in the Norwegian North Sea, the UK North Sea, and Vietnam.

Net sales in the oil exploration and production business for fiscal 2016 decreased by 1.4% from the prior year to ¥73.6 billion, affected mainly by a drop in crude oil prices despite an increase in production volume. Operating income was ¥8.5 billion, an improvement of ¥11.4 billion from the previous fiscal year, as favorable factors such as the weakened currencies of commodity countries offset the lower crude oil prices.

(Coal business and others)

Regarding the coal business, amid a wide swing in coal prices due mainly to China's policy trend, the Company made efforts to enhance competitiveness through improving productivity at all of its mines including those in Indonesia and cost reduction through integrated purchasing and others. Consequently, the Company produced a record-high of approximately 13 million tons of coals in total from its own mines in Australia and Indonesia. Moreover, three companies, namely the Company, NYK Trading Corporation, and NYK Line, agreed to jointly sell "ULTY", NYK Trading's optimization system to control coal boilers, and to jointly develop a new ULTY model that integrates the existing ULTY with the Company's highly efficient combustion technique.

As for the uranium business, the Company sells uranium concentrates produced at the Cigar Lake Mine in Canada.

With regard to the geothermal energy business, the Company continued smooth operations in the Takigami area of Oita Prefecture and started commercial operations of a binary cycle power station with a generating capacity of 5,050 kW in the area from March 2017. In addition, the Company carried out surveys aimed at expanding business in the Amemasudake district of Hokkaido, the Oyasu district of Akita Prefecture, and the Bandai district of Fukushima Prefecture.

Net sales in the coal business and others for fiscal 2016 decreased 0.3% from the preceding fiscal year to ¥153.7 billion due mainly to the commodity countries' weakened currencies against the yen despite increases in coal prices. Operating income was ¥8.1 billion, an improvement of ¥5.9 billion from the preceding fiscal year, owing to the weakened currencies of commodity countries and the effect of cost reduction.

As a result, total net sales of the resources segment slid by 0.7% year-on-year to ¥227.3 billion with operating income of ¥16.6 billion, an increase in ¥17.2 billion from the preceding fiscal year.

[Other segments]

Among other segments, as for the electronic materials business, the agricultural biotechnology business, the gas business, and the renewable energy business, the Company had achieved the following:

(Electronic materials business)

In the field of OLED materials, the Company enhanced the production capacity of its factory in Paju-si, Korea and added more evaluation equipment in the factory allowing the Company to respond to the rising demand for OLED materials along with the future expansion of the popularity of OLED displays. Furthermore, with the aims of facilitating the development of high-performance OLED materials, the Company concluded with Merck KGaA of Germany a collaboration agreement concerning mutual utilization of both companies' patents in the field of OLED materials. It also established an OLED materials development company in Basel, Switzerland to succeed to the development structure from BASF Schweiz AG, a partner for technological exchanges.

(Agricultural biotechnology business)

In the field of agriculture and greening materials, the Company is currently working on activities to expand the sales of its microbe control agent, a disinfectant, to advanced producers' groups through its sales subsidiary, Idemitsu Agri co., ltd.

In the field of feed additives, the Company progressed with efforts to increase the adoption of "RUMINUP®" which has the effect of keeping the intestinal environment of cows and beef cattle normal, and "Crosstop®" which has the same effect on chickens at mainly large-scale farms in Japan as well as efforts to develop channels to sell these products overseas.

(Gas business)

In order to move ahead with studies on and preparation for the natural gas power generation business, the Company established Himeji Natural Gas Power Generation Co., Ltd. in April 2016 through joint capital investment with Osaka Gas Co., Ltd. on the site of the Company's former Hyogo Refinery (Himeji City, Hyogo Prefecture) and is currently implementing a commercialization study.

Petrogas Energy Corp., whose shares the Company holds through AltaGas Idemitsu Joint Venture Limited Partnership which the Company jointly established with AltaGas Ltd. of Canada, endeavored to enhance exports of LPG (liquefied petroleum gas) from the Ferndale terminal (the State of Washington) on the West Coast of the US to Japan and other Asian countries.

(Renewable energy business)

As part of efforts to utilize idle land in the renewable energy business, the Company operates solar power generation facilities (mega-solar power plants) in Moji Ward, Kitakyushu City; Himeji City, Hyogo Prefecture; and Iwaki City, Fukushima Prefecture. In the field of biomass power generation, Tosa Green Power Co., Ltd. with an output capacity of 6,250 kW, 50% of whose shares are held by the Company, and Fukui Green Power Co., Ltd. with an output capacity of 7,000 kW, 10% of whose shares are held by the Company, are in operation.

As a result, net sales for other segments for fiscal 2016 decreased by 8.6% to ¥63.6 billion, and operating income decreased by ¥3.7 billion to ¥5.1 billion, compared with the preceding fiscal year.

4) Forecasts of consolidated financial results for FY2017

The Company expects net sales for FY2017 to be ¥3,500.0 billion, an increase of 9.7% compared with FY2016, due mainly to expected increase in average crude oil prices during the fiscal period.

Operating income is expected to be ¥124.0 billion, a drop of 8.3%, because the effect of inventory valuation in the previous fiscal year has disappeared despite an expected recovery of petroleum product margins, and ordinary income is expected to be ¥140.0 billion, almost unchanged from the preceding fiscal year. Net extraordinary loss is expected to be ¥6.0 billion, a reduction of loss of ¥11.0 billion compared with FY2016, due largely to a decrease in impairment loss. Net income attributable to owners of the parent is expected to be ¥89.0 billion, an increase of 0.9% compared with the prior fiscal year.

The above forecasts for the fiscal year ending March 31, 2018 are based on the assumptions below:

Dubai Crude Oil Price: US$50 per bbl

Foreign Exchange Rate: ¥110 per US$

Forecasts for FY2017 and financial results for FY2016:

(Unit: ¥Billion)

	Net sales	Operating income (loss)	Ordinary income (loss)	Net income (loss) attributable to owners of the parent
FY2017	3,500.0	124.0	140.0	89.0
FY2016	3,190.3	135.2	140.0	88.2
Change (decrease)	9.7 %	(8.3) %	0.0 %	0.9 %

The above forecasts for FY2017 are based on information available as of the date of publication of this document. The actual results may differ from the forecasts due to various factors in the future.

(2) Overview concerning Financial Position

1) Overview of financial position

Total assets as of March 31, 2017 were ¥2,641.6 billion, an increase of ¥239.5 billion compared with the end of the previous fiscal year, due partly to an investment into Showa Shell Sekiyu K.K (“Showa Shell”) and increases in accounts receivable-trade and inventories owing to a rise in crude oil prices.

Total liabilities as of March 31, 2017 were ¥2,021.7 billion, an increase of ¥157.2 billion compared with the end of the previous fiscal year, which was attributable partly to an increase in interest-bearing debt (¥1,052.3 billion) and an increase in notes and accounts payable-trade due to the rise in crude oil prices.

Total net assets were ¥619.9 billion, an increase of ¥82.3 billion compared with the end of the previous fiscal year, which was attributable to net income attributable to owners of the parent of ¥88.2 billion recorded during FY2016.

As a result, the equity ratio as of March 31, 2017 was 22.1%, improved by 1.3% from 20.8% at the end of the preceding fiscal year.

2) Analysis of cash flows

Cash and cash equivalents (“funds”) as of March 31, 2017 were ¥90.1 billion, a decrease of ¥28.7 billion compared with the end of the preceding fiscal year. Major factors for this decrease are as follows:

Net cash provided by operating activities amounted to ¥53.5 billion, as the positive impact of factors such as income before income taxes and depreciation exceeded the negative impact of factors such as increases in accounts receivable-trade and inventories due to a rise in crude oil prices.

Net cash used in investing activities amounted to ¥214.8 billion, due mainly to the acquisition of Showa Shell shares and investments in maintenance and rehabilitation of facilities at refineries.

Net cash provided by financing activities amounted to ¥136.1 billion, attributable primarily to an increase in funding from mainly short-term loans payable and commercial paper.

The Idemitsu Group’s trend of financial indexes was as follows:

	FY2012	FY2013	FY2014	FY2015	FY2016
Equity ratio (%)	24.0	23.5	21.5	20.8	22.1
Equity ratio on a market value basis (%)	11.9	11.3	12.3	13.4	23.4
Debt repayment years (year)	17.7	21.6	5.8	4.2	19.7
Interest coverage ratio (times)	3.9	4.5	17.2	18.8	5.7

Notes:

1. Calculation formulas for indexes:

Equity ratio: (Total net assets - Noncontrolling interests)/Total assets

Equity ratio on a market value basis: Total value of stock at market price/Total assets

Debt repayment years: Interest-bearing debt/ Net cash provided by (used in) operating activities

Interest coverage ratio: Net cash provided by (used in) operating activities /Interest paid

2. Each index was calculated based on consolidated financial information.

3. Total value of stock at market price was calculated using the number of shares issued after excluding the number of treasury stock.

4. “Net cash provided by (used in) operating activities” for the fiscal year was based on the amount described in the consolidated statements of cash flows. Interest-bearing debt was based on debt for which interest expenses were paid among debt recognized in the consolidated balance sheets including short-term loans payable, commercial paper, current portion of bonds payable, bonds payable, long-term loans payable and lease obligations. “Interest paid” was based on the amount described in the consolidated statements of cash flows.

(3) Basic Policy on Distribution of Profits/Dividends for FY2016 and FY2017

The Company considers the return of profits to shareholders as one of the most important matters and intends to pay stable dividends to shareholders, taking into consideration the strategic investment to enhance existing businesses and to develop future business operations, the improvement of the corporate financial structure, and the business performance. With respect to the year-end dividends for fiscal 2016, the Company determined to pay a dividend of ¥25 per share. As a result, annual dividends for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2017 are ¥50 per share.

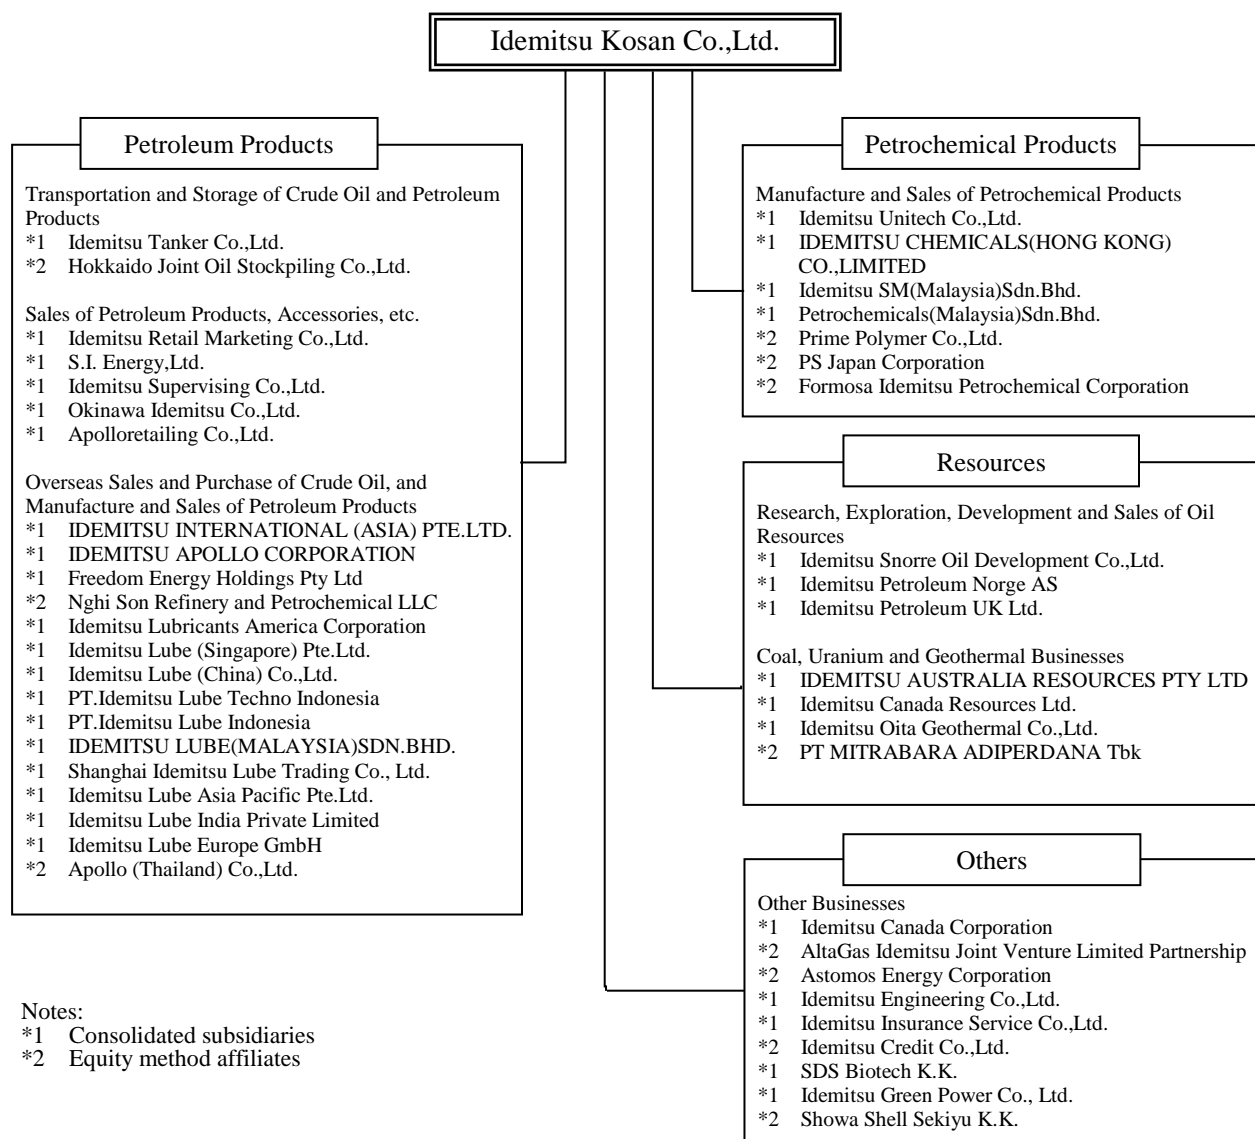

The Company's Articles of Incorporation stipulate that the Company may, by a resolution of the board of directors, make a distribution out of the Company's surplus to shareholders pursuant to the provision of Article 459, Paragraph 1 of the Companies Act. The Company has been paying out dividends twice in each fiscal year as interim dividends and year-end dividends since the fiscal year ended March 2008.

2. Description of Idemitsu Group

The principle businesses of the Company, its subsidiaries (94 companies) and its affiliates (48 companies) and their principal businesses are as follows:

Segment	Principal Businesses	Primary Subsidiaries and Affiliates

(Segment Information)

Segment Information

1. Description of reportable segments

The Company's business segments cover the Group's business units for which separate financial information is available on the business units for the whole Group and for which the Company's Board of Directors carries out a periodic review in order to determine the allocation of management resources and to evaluate their operating performance.

Taking into consideration the nature of the products and the business standing in the Group, the Company adopts the three reportable segments of: Petroleum products, Petrochemical products and Resources. In addition, other business segments are summarized under Others.

The Petroleum products segment is engaged in the manufacturing and sales of fuel oils and lubricant oils. The Petrochemical products segment is involved in the manufacturing and sales of basic chemicals as raw materials for various petrochemical products, as well as solvents and various functional materials. The Resources segment carries out exploration, development, production and sales of energy resources, including crude oil and coal.

2. Methods of measurement for the amounts of sales, income, assets and other items for each reportable segment

The accounting policies of each reportable segment are consistent to those disclosed in (6) “Significant Matters Constituting the Basis for the Preparation of the Consolidated Financial Statements.” The Company accounts for inter-segment sales and transfers as if the sales and transfers were made to third parties.

3. Information about sales, income, assets and other items by reportable segment
